They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortlify the all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanes the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. THE LATE EX-GOV. O'FERRALL. As stated elsewhere in the Gazette, Ex-Governor Charles T. O'Ferrall died at his home in Richmond today.

Ex-Governor O'Ferrall was born in Frederick county, Virginia, October 21, 1840, and is 65 years old. His father was the late John O'Ferrall, of Morgan county, Virginia (now West Virginia), and was a copular man of his time, have and was a popular man of his time, hav-ing often been a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and at the time of his death was clerk of his county and circuit courts.

It was at this later period and at the age of 15 years that the younger O Fer-rall came into public life, and there was hardly a moment from that time until the end of his term as governor, on Jan-uary 1, 1898, that he was not rendering service to the public, either in peace or Young O'Ferrall was appointed clerk pro tempore of the Court of Morgan county upon the death of his father, and at the age of 17 was elected for a full term of six years. But the war came on, and the gallant young Virginian—des-tined thus early in life to make a name for himself, shouldered his musket and marched out to fight for his people.

Morgan county was strongly union in service, and rose, step by step, as a re-sult of his intrepid bravery to the rank of colonel, and at the close of the war was in command of all the southern cavalry in the Valley of Virginia.

To his regiment, indeed, is due the credit for holding the last line, having the last fight and capturing the last of Chicago, may aid the government in prisoner on Virginia soil. His command was in two engagements after the surrender of Gen. R. E. Lee, having refused to believe that his great leader had laid down his arms, although under a flag of truce General Hancock sent him word that Lee had surrendered, and that it would be well for his regiment to follow the example of its com-mander. He never knew the definition of the word "fear," and his black plume always waved at the head of his regiment, where the battle rolled the deep-

In that four years of blood and carnage Colonel O'Ferrall was eight times wounded-three times from saber thrusts at Harrisonburg and entered upon the practice of his profession. In 1871 Colonel O'Ferrall was elected to the House of Delegates as a conservative. At the end of his legislative term be was elected judge of the County Court of Rockingham, and in his position disposed of some of the most important and perplexing criminal cases ever tried in the Valley courts.

When the readjusters got control of the legislature, in 1879, Judge O' Ferrall was displaced, and one of General Ma hone's followers put into his place. He was always an ardent democrat, and npon leaving the bench was sent from the Cumberland Gap to the ocean many times to preach the doctrines of his party to the voters. In 1882 Colonel O'Ferrall made his In 1882 Colonel O Fetrali made in first race for Congress. His competitor was the late Judge John Paul, of his own town of Harrisonburg.

without opposition in his own party.

He made and kept the Seventh district safely democratic, and when he left it to assume the duties of governor in 1894, it was, as it is today, regarded as the Gibraltar of the party in Virginia.

He was the chief lieutenant floor leader of the late Charles F. Crisp, of Georgia, in his fight for speaker against Roger Q Mills, of Texas, and when Crisp wen 1e made O'Ferrall chairman of the im-

Cleveland, and through both of the latter's administrations was often called to the White House. Governor O'Ferrall would never subscribe to the doctrine of free silver, and with his characteristic courage and frank-ness announced that he would give his support to Palmer and Buckner, the candidates of the gold wing of the party. Governor O Ferrall in his latter days made a valuable contribution to the literature of Virginia in his book entitled, every year brings an in-crease in the number of opera-tions performed upon women in our hospitals. More than three-fourths of the white beds are women and girls who are awaiting or recovering from operations made necessary by neglect.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saves Many From this Sad and Costly Experience.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the plenty of warming in that the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, leucorrhosa, dizziness, flatulency, displacements of the womb or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb, and if not heeded the trouble will make headway until the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation, and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at best, while in many cases the results are fatal.

The following letter should bring hope to suffering women. Miss Luella Adams, of the Colonnade Hotel, Seattle, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"About two years ago I was a great sufferer from a severe female trouble, pains and headaches. The doctor prescribed for me and finally told me that I had a tumor on the womb and must undergo an operation if I wanted to get well. I felt that this was my death warrant, but I spent hundreds of dollars for medical help, but the tumor kept growing. Fortunately I corresponded with an aunt in the New England States, and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was said to cure tumors. I did so and immediately began to improve in health, and I was entirely cured, the tumor disappearing entirely, without an operation. I wish every suffering woman would try this great preparation."

Just as surely as Miss Adams was Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-

Just as surely as Miss Adams was cured of the troubles enumerated in her letter, just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman in the land who suffers from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, kidney troubles, nervous excitability and nervous prostration. Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. Address, Lynn, Mass.
